"In his short time at Cass, Martin has proven his ability to implement strategic objectives with respect to our invoice payment and information services business," said Brunngraber. "The addition of the president role will provide Martin enhanced responsibilities over technology and other revenue sources."

Prior to joining Cass in November 2020, Resch was senior manager of the commercial banking group of Bank of the West, BNP Paribas in San Francisco, Calif. As executive vice president, Resch functioned as the group's chief administrative officer/chief operating officer with responsibility for strategy, operations, finance, technology and human resources. Other roles included corporate treasurer and leader of a B2B FinTech incubator.

Previously, he engaged in multiple entrepreneurial initiatives related to FinTech and financial markets. For example, Resch founded three equity and index option funds on the Pacific Exchange and, as a member of the board, actively participated in the sale of the
