Urban brings more than 20 years of experience in various leadership positions at Cass. Most recently, he served as senior vice president responsible for operations and audit within TIS, and successfully oversaw the significant global expansion of the TIS business to support Cass clients. "It is exciting to promote into this key role a Cass employee with decades of internal experience," Cass president and chief operating officer, Martin Resch, stated. "Tony's industry-specific knowledge and years of experience in various finance roles make him an ideal candidate to lead TIS forward."

Eric Brunngraber, chairman and the chief executive officer said, "Mark Campbell's stewardship of our transportation business has been exemplary, as evidenced by significant revenue and client growth under Mark's tenure. We are excited for Mark to assume a new leadership role within Cass which will help us continue to expand our product suite and future growth goals."

Urban earned his Bachelor of Science in Accountancy from the University of Missouri - Columbia and a master's degree in business administration from the University of Missouri - St. Louis. He is also a Certified Public Accountant and sits on the advisory board of the Supply Chain and Analytics school at the University of Missouri - St. Louis.
