

Cass Information Systems Opens Office in the Netherlands

February 9, 2011

ST. LOUIS, MO, Feb 09, 2011 (MARKETWIRE via COMTEX) --

Cass Information Systems (NASDAQ: CASS), a leading provider of freight, utility and telecom expense management and related business intelligence services, has opened an office in Breda, Netherlands.

"The office in Breda demonstrates our commitment to our multinational clients," stated Eric Brunngraber, chief executive officer. "Clients will enjoy the same advanced systems and customer-centric solutions, now with local support."

Cass Information Systems pays more than $27 billion annually on behalf of its clients, who are primarily global companies. In 2010, the company processed over 38 million client invoices. Clients include such global leaders as AT&T, Caterpillar Inc., Emerson, Ford Motor Company, Toyota and Unilever.

About Cass Information Systems

Cass Information Systems, Inc. (NASDAQ: CASS) is the leading provider of transportation, utility and telecom expense management and related business intelligence services, disbursing more than $27 billion annually on behalf of its clients. With annual revenues of $96 million and total assets exceeding $1 billion, Cass is a business process outsourcer focused on invoice audit, processing and payment services. Cass Commercial Bank, established in 1906, is a wholly owned subsidiary and Federal Reserve Member Bank, providing sophisticated financial exchange services to the parent organization and its clients. Cass is part of the Russell 2000(R) Index. More information is available at <http://www.cassinfo.com>.

Contact: □

Melia Cothran

314-506-5931 □

Email Contact

SOURCE: Cass Information Systems

<http://www2.marketwire.com/mw/emailprcntct?id=796073DCD30938EB> □